BEVINGTON CALLS FOR CHANGES TO BORROWING LIMITS
Private Members Bill to Help NWT with Federal Funds

OTTAWA –Tomorrow (June 9, 2010) Western Arctic MP Dennis Bevington will introduce a bill in the House of Commons that will change the borrowing limits for the Government of the Northwest Territories.

“While we are not a province, the NWT needs independent fiscal certainty in its ability to make investments for the future of the territory. We cannot wait for the Harper government to act, my private members bill will be a step in the right direction,” said Mr. Bevington.

Mr. Bevington will be available for interviews after his bill introduced in the House of Commons.

Interview sessions will be scheduled on a first come, first served basis.

Mr. Bevington will introduce his bill during Routine Proceedings of the House of Commons, which begins at 15:00 hrs Ottawa time (13:00 hrs Yellowknife time).
